

Teacher Candidate Dispositions
CNU MAT Teacher Preparation Program

Disposition	How assessed
1. Passion and enthusiasm for teaching and working with children	Admission essay; professor observation; coop and supervisor evaluation
2. Integrity and honesty; meets ethical expectations	professor observation; coop and supervisor evaluation; written work
3. Flexibility and responsiveness to change	professor observation; coop and supervisor evaluation
4. Ability to work collaboratively with peers, colleagues, and families	professor observation; coop and supervisor evaluation
5. Commitment to continued learning, reflection, and self-assessment	professor observation; coop and supervisor evaluation; resume showing extra workshops
6. Value student achievement and learning of all students	professor observation; coop and supervisor evaluation; professional work sample
7. Ability to focus during learning process and respond positively to suggestions for improvement	professor observation; coop and supervisor evaluation
8. Punctuality, attendance, and ability to meet deadlines	professor observation; coop and supervisor evaluation; artifacts from program
9. Determination; persistence in overcoming obstacles	professor observation; coop and supervisor evaluation; artifacts from program
10. Positive attitude	professor observation; coop and supervisor evaluation;