

The Cupola* Faculty Mentor Approval Form

The Cupola strives to publish the most outstanding scholarship of students at Christopher Newport University. Therefore, the paper submitted should be of the highest academic caliber, should conform to the documentation standards prescribed by the discipline, should adhere to rigorous investigative techniques, and should be essentially free of errors. The Cupola does so in partnership with faculty mentors who guide these researchers. It is the Faculty Mentor's responsibility to ensure that the paper submitted is of the highest academic standard, conforms to the documentation standards of the discipline, adheres to rigorous scientific or investigative techniques, and is essentially free of errors. If you have questions regarding the submission process, please email: orca@cnu.edu.

In signing this form:

- I acknowledge I have read the paper.
- I agree that if the Work reproduces any material that is the intellectual property of another, the Author has obtained the unrestricted permission of the copyright owner to grant the rights required by this license and to publish that material in the Work, or that the material is being incorporated based on an informed application of fair use principles.
- I agree that the Work has not been previously published and is not pending review elsewhere. If this is not the case, the Author will inform the Journal of the other locations where the Work appears or is awaiting review.
- I acknowledge that I have read the manuscript named above and critiqued it on content, method, style, grammar, and overall presentation; and that the planning, execution, and writing of the manuscript represent primarily the work of CNU students.
- I understand that I will be acknowledged as the faculty mentor for the student author(s) and approve it for submission to The Cupola.
- To the best of my knowledge, the student has followed the accepted standards of investigation, creativity, academic honesty, and ethics as they conducted the research.
- I hereby consent that all information on this form is accurate to the best of my knowledge. Please note: this form maybe signed electronically or signed and scanned as a PDF to submit to the ORCA; the faculty endorsement should be emailed separately to orca@cnu.edu.
